The Music and Arts University of the City of Vienna (MUK) invites potential candidates to apply for the new postgraduate Doctoral Programme in Artistic Research (PhD, 6 semesters, German/English). The Doctoral Programme at the MUK adheres to the tradition of artistic research that understands knowledge generation as the result of investigative artistic-scholarly processes, while requiring theoretical embedding, a systematic and comprehensible methodological procedure, as well as dissemination of the research results.

Individual doctoral projects can focus on the following six research fields:

- Contemporary theatre
- Interpretation research
- Composition/Music theory
- Arts and cultural education
- Performance Art
- Contemporary dance

The applicant must submit the application documents in German or English exclusively via the campus management system MUKonline (online.muk.ac.at) by 27 May 2024.
